

Advanced Network Setup

| Product Series  | Download             | Description                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-----------------|----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| EaZy Networking | HERE | EaZy Networking is a service to connect your camera to Internet by simply plug and play, saving all troubles to configure network setting.Only EaZy Networking products could use this service. |
| Wireless        | HERE | Wireless series saves all troubles to connect a RJ45 network cable from your camera to your modem or router.                                                                                        |
| Others          | HERE | Others are traditional network / IP cameras which are not categorized into the two series above.                                                                                                    |